Massive walls, generous washing area that combines comfort and specific details. The sink has a deep basin (20 cm), ideal for washing large items. The sink is supplied complete with chrome waste and an integrated overflow in a vintage style.

The Chambord Clovis 595 modular sink is a perfect replica of the original Victorian style. The sink brings luxury and a touch of old times to your kitchen.

Modular sinks are preferably recommended for installation with countertops made of non-absorbent material. In the case of a stone countertop, the sink is installed under the countertop; in the case of a wooden countertop, it is recommended that the sink slightly overhangs above the countertop to prevent contact with water.

Among the most common advantages of ceramic sinks are: high resistance to impacts, scratch resistance, high thermal resistance, hygienic harmlessness, easy removal of limescale, color fastness.
