The kitchen faucet Eisl Leon is an ideal choice for a modern kitchen. The faucet is characterized by a simple design, but a very functional construction. The faucet is perfectly suited for granite or stainless steel sinks.

Leon is an arched spiral battery from the German supplier Eisl with a tradition since 1980. The 360° swivel battery is ideal not only for larger double sinks. The battery head is equipped with a shower, the shower control is located directly on the head for easy use. The retractable shower is located on a flexible hose. This allows you to easily rinse the sink walls or fill larger containers with water. The Eisl Leon kitchen battery is equipped with a high-quality ceramic cartridge. The high quality of workmanship ensures long life and durability.

This battery is available in two color variations:

- Shiny chrome
- appearance stainless steel
